

JAI MAHARASHTRA!

Explore your own backyard

Summer time means getting out of the city and heading to more cooler climates to escape the scalding heat. You don't have to visit the chilly Swiss Alps or the warm, balmy locales of Maldives to beat the heat. There are plenty of places around that are just as beautiful and relaxing, where you can have a perfect summer holiday.

WHAT'S HOT shows you some ideal getaways in Maharashtra where you can escape this sunny season.

Bhandardara

An ideal getaway for trekkers, Bhandardara has tons of picnic spots like the Wilson Dam, Arthur Lake, Mount Kalsubai, which is highest peak in Maharashtra, the Ratangad Fort and a gorgeous rock cut Shiva temple among others. A reservoir 2,400 feet above sea level is one of the must spots to visit. Also visit the Bhandardara-Randha Road, which boasts of having a lake on one side and mountains on the other, making the drive very surreal.

Getting there:

- Mumbai is the nearest airport.
- Igatpuri, 45 kms on Central Railway is the closest railhead.
- Mumbai-Bhandardara, 185 kms.
- Pune-Bhandardara, 191 kms.

